Southwestern University Pre-Advising Days

Pre-Advising Days for Deposited Students

April 14.....Admitted Student Day & Pre-Advising Day #1 (Saturday)

Admitted Student Day (ASD) is intended to give you a final look at Southwestern. Whether you've decided to sport an eye-patch as a new Pirate or if you're still walking the plank, the ASD program can help answer any lingering questions. You can tour the residence halls, meet with a financial aid officer, join us at our student organizations fair, and so much more.

Pre-Advising Day #1, running concurrently with the ASD program, is designed for students who have submitted a $500 enrollment deposit to Southwestern. Program features:

- One-on-one advising appointment to set your fall schedule
- Priority on-line registration on June 15, 2012
- Guarantee one of top two available selections for First-Year Seminar class
- Priority housing assignment (based on First-Year Seminar or Living-Learning Community)
- Acquire your Pirate Card/Student ID
