SIT Scholarships

- Awards range from $500 to $5,000 for semester/year programs.
- Awards range from $300 to $3,000 for summer programs

SIT Scholarship Opportunities include:

The Compton Fund- For SIT programs with environmental, peace studies, or sustainable development themes, with priority for students representing US minority groups.

The Diversity Fund- For students who will enhance the racial, national, and ethnic diversity of the student body.

Engineering Scholarship- For students enrolled in an undergraduate engineering program and who have demonstrated financial need.

Houston International Scholarship- For Houston-area undergraduate students in any field or major. Students of color are strongly encouraged to apply.

Lewy Family Global Health Scholars Fund- For women scholars hoping to make a positive impact on health projects in needy areas. Recipients are expected to spend a semester in-country living and working with local communities and partners to improve their health care system and contribute to the overall improvement of the community's general health and welfare.

Middle East and Islamic Studies Scholarship- For students participating in programs with significant Middle Eastern and/or Islamic studies content.

Pell Grant Matching- Automatic matching of a student's Pell award used for semester study abroad programs with SIT. More than 30 SIT programs across the globe are eligible.

Sally Bragg Baker Scholarship- For a female participant in any semester program who demonstrates international awareness and a desire to create a more peaceful world through international exchange.

SIT Fund- For anyone enrolled in any SIT Study Abroad program, to help promote study abroad opportunities worldwide.

The Workum Fund- For participants in SIT Study Abroad programs to the Indian subcontinent (India, Nepal, and Tibetan and Himalayan Studies programs).

Arcadia Scholarships

Scholarships through the Arcadia program are primarily need-based. They range between $500 and $2,000 for a full year, semester, term, or summer.

Alliance Scholarships

The maximum amount that students can receive is $6,000 per student for the fall and spring terms and $2,500 per student for the summer term.

Award decisions are based on financial need. In order to apply for an Alliance scholarship, you must have applied for financial aid through your home school.
