Southwestern University

Housing Application Deadlines:

Fall 2011 Enrollment: May 1, 2011 • Spring 2012 Enrollment: December 1, 2011

2011
2012

To the Student

The application for housing must be completed after a student is admitted to Southwestern University and returned to: Office of Admission, Southwestern University, P.O. Box 770, Georgetown, Texas, 78627-0770. This information will serve as a permanent record and will assist the housing staff during the room assignment process. The required $500 deposit for housing and enrollment, as mentioned in the acceptance letter, must be submitted before this application will be processed.

Residency Requirement: Students are required to live on campus their first two years. Transfer students who have fewer than four full semesters in college also are required to live on campus.

Residence Hall Preference

Priority for room assignment is based on the date your $500 deposit ($250 enrollment and $250 housing) is received in the Office of Admission. Residence hall priority will be forfeited if the housing application is not returned by the printed deadline date. Assignments to halls are made on a space-available basis. If space is not available in a selected residence hall, assignments will be made to alternate options.

Please note: Transfers who have not completed two years of full-time work are required to live on campus.

On Campus Off Campus: I have more than two years of full-time work.

Roommate Request

Roommate requests must be received by May 1 for academic year assignments, or by December 1 for spring semester assignments. Both parties must complete applications for the same hall and room type and request one another as roommates. The latest deposit date between both students will be used to determine housing priority for roommate pairing.
