Southwestern University will provide you a prescribed benefit dollar amount to pay for the cost of medical insurance you select under the Southwestern University Flexible Benefits Plan. With the benefit dollars provided, you will be able to purchase medical insurance which best suits your needs. For calendar year 2013, this amount will be up to $6,204.00 per year, or up to $517.00 per month if you are paid over 12 months, or up to $238.62 bi-weekly.

If the cost of the medical insurance you select exceeds the benefit dollar amount provided, you will be responsible for any excess costs. The premium costs for your benefits will be paid on a “pre-tax” basis or “post-tax” basis. “Pre-tax” means that the amount which you spend for benefits will not be subject to Federal Income Tax or Social Security Taxes. “Post-tax” deferrals will be made on a post-tax basis (referred to as “after-tax basis”).

Benefit Selection:

For each plan year, beginning January 1, 2013, you will be required to select the flexible benefits you desire. This will be an open enrollment period which will normally take place during the month of November for a January 1 effective date. At the time of enrollment, you may add/drop dependents or change your level of coverage. You will be advised before each enrollment period what the benefit dollar amount for the plan year will be and what the premium rates for each of the benefits will be. Your selection will be effective for the full plan year (in our case, the plan year runs the calendar year), unless you have a qualified change in family status.

2013 Benefit Rates: These rates do not reflect the $517.00 monthly or $238.62 bi-weekly University contribution for Medical insurance.

The Kinesiology department also offers opportunities to work with employees for wellness.

Most services are free of charge to the employee; however, there may be a minimal charge for some of the educational programs.

Food Services: Sodexo

Employees may eat in the University's dining room at discounted prices for breakfast, lunch, and dinner.

Faculty and Staff Scholarship Program:

Employees and their dependents who are accepted for enrollment at Southwestern University may receive tuition scholarships after one (1) year of service. The funds for this benefit are provided by the Grace Pate Downs Scholarship fund. While it is not required, employees are encouraged to contribute to the fund throughout the University to ensure the continued level of contributions needed to offset the cost of this benefit.

Tuition Exchange Program:

The University also participates in tuition exchange programs which enable employees and their family members to attend other member institutions. The receiving institution awards scholarships to the matriculating students based upon guidelines agreed to by the participating institutions. Southwestern University also has bilateral tuition scholarship arrangements with a number of other institutions, including Austin College, Trinity University, and Lon Morris College. Additional information may be obtained from the Office of Financial Aid.

As with other employee benefits, employees must work a minimum of thirty hours per week (75% FTE) to be eligible for this benefit. The value of the benefit is prorated according to the employee's FTE. This benefit for part-time employees extends only to Southwestern University. Other colleges do not allow part-time scholarships.

The following supplemental changes or amendments to the current tuition assistance policy are effective February 9, 2005:

1. Southwestern will limit the number of exports that may be certified each year. This change is required by, and the limits will be based on the information we receive from, the Tuition Exchange, Inc. program regarding the balance of our "imports" and "exports". If the University must limit the number of exports that may be certified, the University will use continuous employment longevity as the criterion establishing a priority list of dependents to be certified.
2. A one (1) year waiting period for eligibility will continue to apply to current employees, subject to the limits expressed in number 1 above. All new employees beginning employment with Southwestern after February 9, 2005 will have a three (3) year waiting period for the Tuition Exchange, Inc. program benefit before they or their dependents will be eligible for the benefits, subject to the limits expressed in number 1 above.
3. Application Requirement for dependents as they begin their sophomore year in high school (or its equivalent for students being home schooled, the "Equivalent"): All employees must notify the Financial Aid department and complete the application for a Tuition Exchange benefit by September 1st of the year the dependent they wish to enroll begins his or her sophomore year in high school (or Equivalent).

In order to be eligible to apply for the benefit, the applicable one (1) or three (3) year waiting period would have to be met at the beginning of the first semester when the Tuition Exchange Inc. program benefit will be used.

This application requirement change will help the Financial Aid department plan and estimate the number of "exports" that can be offered each year under the Tuition Exchange, Inc. program.
