

Personal Property Deed of Gift

Please sign and date this personal property deed of gift and return to:
Office of the Associate Vice President for Development
Southwestern University
P.O. Box 770
Georgetown Texas 78627

(Name(s)) _____, herein called the Donor(s), residing at (Address) _____

hereby irrevocably and unconditionally give(s) and assign(s) to Southwestern University at Georgetown, Texas absolute and unconditional ownership of the following personal property, together with all copyright and full discretion as to use and disposition.

Any proceeds arising from its sale, or collected as insurance for its damage or destruction, shall support the mission of Southwestern.

Description of property gifted:

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

To the best of my (our) knowledge, this personal property is free and clear of all encumbrances and restrictions.

If the gift is exhibited, lent or published, it is to be identified as a gift from:

It is the express wish of the Donor(s) that the property be used for the purpose of:

I (we) specifically grant, transfer and deliver to Southwestern University in this transaction the above named property(ies) which I (we) own.

Signature of Donor

Date

Signature of Donor

Date

ACCEPTED by the authority of the President of Southwestern University this _____ day of _____, 20____.

Jake B. Schrum
President, Southwestern University

You may give personal property to Southwestern which does not relate to the University's mission. However, your deduction in this case equals your cost basis in the property or its fair market value, whichever is less, up to 50 percent of your adjusted gross income, with a five-year carryover period. If the personal property is sold by Southwestern within two years of the date of the gift, the charitable deduction is limited to the sale amount.