Paideia Connections: Engaging Scholarly Conversations

Thursday, October 13, 2016, 4:00 PM, Olin 105, Southwestern University, Reception to follow in Olin Lobby

The Paideia Connections lecture series features short talks by two faculty members from diverse fields about their recent scholarly work. Following their talks, members of the audience are encouraged to engage in thought-provoking discussions and invited to share connections they make between the presentations.

Emily Niemeyer
Professor of Chemistry
Holder of the Herbert and Kate Dishman Chair in Science

Topic TBA

Elaine Craddock
Professor of Religion

Topic TBA

Paideia Connections is sponsored by the Brown Chairs, University Scholars, Office of the President, and Office of the Dean of the Faculty at Southwestern University.

For more information contact Ben Pierce, Professor of Biology and holder of the Lillian Nelson Pratt Chair at 512-863-1974 or pierceb@southwestern.edu