Welcome to a new school year and new opportunities to learn, grow and have fun. On the other side of this card are listed some of the activities on campus designed to support your spiritual life and interests. If you are interested in any of the activities listed (or have ideas of your own to share) just fill out the card and drop it in campus mail. Blessings to you for a great semester.

Student Religious Organizations

Participation in Student Led Religious Organizations varies year by year depending on the numbers and interests of current students. Current organizations include:

- Canterbury (Episcopal students)
- Catholic Student Association
- Fellowship of Christian Athletes
- Jewish Students Association
- Kappa Upsilon Chi (Men's Group)
- Lutheran's at Southwestern
- Muslim Student Association
- Sigma Phi Lambda (Women's Group)
- SU Buddhist Meditation Group
- United Methodist Student Movement

Destination: Service

Southwestern Students get involved in helping others and learning about themselves through volunteer service over Spring Break. Trips go to urban, rural and suburban sites to work with social service agencies, the National Parks and religious communities to strengthen programs and gain insight into the needs of people and the world through direct interaction.

Chapel

Chapel Services are held weekly during the academic year in the Lois Perkins Chapel (Thursdays @ 11am). Services are open to all and are aimed at giving a mid-week spiritual life to those who participate.

Other Chapel Programs include Special Worship Services at:

- Orientation
- Homecoming
- Family Days
- Commencement

Seasonal Chapel Celebrations include:

- Monthly Communion Services
- All Saints Day Remembrance
- Advent Candlelight Service
- Martin Luther King, Jr. Service
- Ash Wednesday and Lenten Services
- Earth Day Service
- And more.

Programs

The following programs are open to all students. If you have ideas for additional programs, please give us a call! We would love to work with you to start something that fits your needs.

Care Fair - Get off campus and get involved by serving at area non-profit agencies. The Care Fair will help you get connected. Look for the Care Fair in September on the Academic Mall.

Interfaith Dialogue - Meet with other students who want to interact around diverse perspectives on faith and spirituality.

Small Group Studies and Fellowship - Join others in meeting regularly to grow in faith through study, sharing, prayer and fellowship. Times to be decided by each small group.

Faith and Film- Enjoy watching and discussing films that are rich in theology and themes that depict the spiritual dimension of life.

Breaking Borders - Travel to area communities to learn and serve in settings that challenge our expectations.

Pre-Ministry Students - Opportunities to consider a calling to full time ministry and gain experiences that will enhance ministry skills.
