Dear APO enthusiasts,

1. We have Pledge induction tomorrow night at 9:00 in the Olin chapter meeting room. Actives must be there by 8:45 (talk to Cameron if that is an issue), and all officers must be there by 8:15 to help set up and prepare. It is pin attire, so dress nicely.

2. Matt Kamas extends an invitation to the pledge meeting tonight at 8:00. It would be greatly appreciated if actives would attend, let us not forget the major perk for attending pledge meetings...hours!

3. Dues are due to Peter by October 1st. They are $85 for actives.

4. CPPC is September 20th from 2-4pm. This is mandatory, do not forget.

If you read through the entirety, or just skipped to the end of the email, you are in luck. I have some funny photos courtesy of thisisphotobomb.com. I hope you enjoy them.
