

Elena (El) Gonzalez is a visual artist from Seguin, Texas. Through their work, Gonzalez explores the construct of Home, and how it reveals itself through our bodies, dwellings, and familiar landscapes.

They earned their BFA from Southwestern University in 2018. They have participated in Currents Undergraduate Residency at the Pennsylvania Academy of the Fine Arts, Summer Studio Program at Virginia Commonwealth University. They have exhibited at Sarofim School of Fine Arts in Georgetown, TX, VCU School of the Arts in Richmond, VA, Yes Ma'am Projects in Denver, CO, Friend of a Friend in Denver, CO, and Contracommon in Bee Cave, TX. Gonzalez lives and works as a carpenter in Denver, CO.

