Good Samaritan Policy: Southwestern University encourages students to seek medical attention during an alcohol or drug-related emergency. The Southwestern University Good Samaritan Policy offers amnesty from university sanctions for 1) intoxicated individuals (2) individuals and organizations that assist an intoxicated individual in need of help. In a medical emergency the only consideration should be for the health and safety of those at risk. For the entire policy, please see page 46 of the Student Handbook (and page 32 of the online version - <http://www.southwestern.edu/studentlife/handbook/>)

National Organizations Policy: Southwestern University expects all nationally affiliated organizations to follow these alcohol event policies, as well as those established by their national organization for risk management.

Risk Management Policy: By signing this form, our organization is accepting responsibility for the activity and conduct of all participants, including guests. Violations could result in the event being terminated and/or disciplinary action against the organization or individuals.

Recent Organization History: All policies and procedures related to alcohol event requests can be modified based on an organization's recent history. If an organization has recently been found in violation of University Policy, or is under a current sanction, additional requirements may be added in order to gain approval of the request.

Student Sexual Misconduct Policy and Student Organizations: A student organization may be held responsible for sexual misconduct when alcohol or other drugs made available or were knowingly allowed by the organization during an organization-related event were a factor in a violation, and that organization did not take reasonable precautions to ensure the safety of the members and their guests. For more complete information about this very important topic, please refer to entire policy on page 72 of the Student Handbook (and page 45 of the online version - <http://www.southwestern.edu/studentlife/handbook/>)
