Who may apply for these scholarships?

Any Southwestern University student may apply if he or she:

- (1) plans to enroll at the university during the 2018-2019 academic year on a full-time basis and,
- (3) is making satisfactory academic progress for financial aid purposes (i.e., 2.0 cumulative GPA, completed at least 80% of all credit hours attempted, and earned no more than 175 credit hours.)

For students to be eligible for the Robert H. Purl Pre-Law Scholarship, they must maintain a 3.0 cumulative grade point average while at Southwestern.

If I meet the criteria above, does this mean I will automatically receive the scholarship?

No. These are competitive scholarships and the recipients will be selected from the pool of applicants for the scholarships.

How are the recipients selected?

Applications are solicited through announcements to the student body. Scholarship candidates will identify themselves by completing a scholarship application, which must be submitted to the Financial Aid Office by May 1, 2018. Applications are reviewed by the Financial Aid Office. Among the eligible applicants, preference is given to members who demonstrate the highest levels of academic excellence and/or leadership in the University community. All applicants will be notified of their final status in writing by June 30, 2018.

What are the amounts of the scholarships and how many are available?

The available funding for the 2018-2019 academic year has not yet been determined. The number and amount of awards will be influenced by the number and quality of applications received. The Financial Aid Office will determine who will receive the scholarships, and in what amounts.

What are the durations of the scholarships?

The Judge Richard Critz and the Robert H. Purl Endowed Scholarships are awarded annually and are good for one year. The scholarships must be used during the regular academic year. The scholarships may not be used for summer school or for any type of program where SU funds may not be used, such as non-SU study abroad programs or the GLCA New York Semester.

Is the scholarship renewable?

The Judge Richard Critz and the Robert H. Purl Endowed Scholarships are awarded for one year only and are not renewable. However, recipients may re-apply each year to be considered along with all other applicants for that year.
