Southwestern University Memo for Religious Holidays, Observance Days, and Related Absences

Southwestern is a community made up of many faiths. We encourage students, faculty, and staff to be aware and respectful of the diverse religious observances of University community members. Required accommodations exist for: Eid al-Fitr, Eid al-Adha, Rosh Hashanah, Yom Kippur, Christmas Day, Ash Wednesday, Pesach (Passover), Good Friday, Easter (see below for Southwestern’s Religious Observance Excused Absence Policy). Suggested accommodations may range: adjusted due dates, proctoring exams (if during fasting) at times best for student fasting, offering halal/kosher/vegetarian options when food is offered.

Major Holy Days 2020-2021

The days listed below are the ones most likely to affect the academic calendar. NOTE: Dates in bold indicate holy days where work is prohibited or fasting is involved. An asterisk (*) indicates the holy day begins at sundown the day before this date and ends at sundown on this date.

Southwestern’s Religious Observance Excused Absence Policy

Policy Reminders: One-time University events should not be scheduled during the following holidays; these are events which either (1) require attendance, (2) may not be mandatory, but those not attending would miss an important opportunity to be included in a campus event, and/or (3) are one-time opportunities for participants to receive the services offered: Eid al-Fitr, Eid al-Adha, Rosh Hashanah, Yom Kippur, Christmas Day, Pesach (Passover), Good Friday, Easter.

Chapel Services: In addition to the above religious holidays, the following dates and times have been identified for Chapel services during the 2020-2021 academic year. These are priority events which no student, faculty, or staff member may be denied the opportunity to attend because of a conflicting class, meeting, or event.

- Welcome Week worship service, Sunday, August 16, 2020, 11:00am-12:00pm (virtual)
- Candlelight worship services, Thursday, December 3, 2020, 6:00pm & 8:00pm (virtual)
- Ash Wednesday, Wednesday, February 17, 2021 (reflection and ashes to go offered 11:30 to 12:30)
- Homecoming worship service, Sunday, April 11, 2021, 10:00am-11:00am
- Baccalaureate worship service, Friday, May 7, 2021, 7:00pm-8:00pm

Religious Absences: Because the religious holidays listed above reflect some, but not all, of the most commonly observed holidays, the University policies also permit any student to miss class in order to observe any religious or cultural holidays that are part of their tradition, including holidays that are not listed above. Students are expected to notify their professor of religious absences as far in advance as possible and fulfill missed assignments prior to the absence. Additionally, University policies permit faculty and staff, including student employees, to miss work in order to observe religious and cultural holidays that are part of their tradition, including holidays that are not listed above. This time off may be without pay or taken as accrued vacation time, and in the case of student employees, it can include a change in work hours within a pay period to accommodate the absence. The University policy notes that faculty members are still expected to meet their class schedules and should work with their Department chair or the Dean of the Faculty to arrange these absences.

These policies can also be found in the Student and Faculty Handbooks and on the Spiritual and Religious Life website: www.southwestern.edu/life-at-southwestern/spiritual-and-religious-life/holidays/
