

Application Deadlines:
March 15, 2020 (prospective students)
May 1, 2020 (currently enrolled SU students)

Recognizing Southwestern University's heritage as a church related institution, the university is pleased to provide scholarship assistance to students preparing for full-time ministry. Students who present satisfactory evidence of an intention to enter full-time ministry may be eligible to receive annual tuition assistance. Amounts vary. This scholarship is renewable contingent upon the student's continued commitment to enter full-time ministry and participation in the Southwestern Pre-Ministry Connection, organized by the University Chaplain. Prospective students should also submit the Southwestern University Application for Admission and Merit Scholarships by the appropriate deadline. Admission application information may be obtained by contacting the SU Office of Admission.

Students should complete Section 1 and arrange to have Section 2 completed.
Submit the completed Pre-Ministerial Scholarship Application to:
Southwestern University Financial Aid Office, PO Box 770, Georgetown, TX 78627
