ABOUT FORM 1095-C

Southwestern University is required to furnish certain employees with a Form 1095-C (sometimes referred to as the “Form”) to provide information about coverage under the Southwestern University Health and Life Insurance Plan for the preceding calendar year. This Form is generally provided by January 31 of the following year (unless the IRS extends the deadline for furnishing the Form to you, in which case the Form may be provided by such later date) and includes the following:

- Information about the health plan coverage offered to the employee and, if applicable, the employee’s family members.
- Information about enrollment of the employee and, if applicable, the employee’s family members in the health plan.

You may need the information provided on Form 1095-C when you prepare your federal income tax return for the calendar year to which the Form 1095-C relates. You may also be required to print and attach Form 1095-C to a federal, state, or local income tax return you file for the calendar year to which the Form 1095-C relates. (Consult your tax advisor or the instructions to the applicable income tax return for additional information about the requirement to attach Form 1095-C to the return.)

MANNER OF RECEIVING FORM 1095-C

The University sends Form 1095-C to employees by mail in January of each year (unless an extended IRS deadline applies). However, you can choose to receive Form 1095-C electronically by following the instructions and making your election to receive the Form electronically.

If you do not elect to receive Form 1095-C electronically, you will continue to receive a paper copy of Form 1095-C by mail.
